Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy

Internal policy document | Confidential

1. Standards of Conduct

The company prohibits bribery, corruption, facilitation payments, and improper gifts or hospitality in all business dealings. This policy applies to employees, intermediaries, agents, and contractors acting on behalf of the company.

Any facilitation or inducement offered to influence a decision, secure a contract, or gain a business advantage is prohibited, regardless of whether the benefit is cash, gifts, travel, or employment opportunities.

2. Reporting and Escalation

Employees should report suspected violations through the confidential reporting hotline or directly to legal and compliance. Reports will be investigated promptly and handled with appropriate confidentiality.

Retaliation against a reporting employee is prohibited. Violations may result in disciplinary action, contract termination, and referral to external authorities where required.
